French Language Classes

FRENCH I
In a friendly and lively atmosphere, you will acquire basic vocabulary, grasp primary sentence construction, and pick up pronunciation subtleties. You will also discover many aspects of French life as all lessons are based on everyday situations you will encounter when travelling to France or to most French-speaking countries.

NEW! FRENCH LANGUAGE & CINEMA
Watching movies in French is one of the best ways to improve your language skills. If you are a student of French II or French III, sign up for this course to watch a French film, get to understand its cultural context during short projection breaks, and enjoy a friendly conversation at the end — in French of course. In short, become your own little “Festival de Cannes” critique!

NEW! FRENCH III
Get to an advanced level of French with this continuation of French II. You will, for example, study how to conjugate verbs in the past, how to use pronouns properly, and where to put adverbs in a sentence. You’ll also get to boost your conversation skills with a lot of new vocabulary and exercises requiring live interaction with your fellow students.

NOTE: As for French I and French II, textbooks will be provided in class. There is no need to buy any other book.
