Paralegal Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Course

This program is an accelerated-learning course that teaches the real-life skills needed to be a successful paralegal. Learn how to prepare trial notebooks, conduct legal research using LexisNexis, draft documents, and submit billable hours using Tabs3. Learn about the various areas of practice within the law. Participate in a hands-on legal service-learning project. Network and connect to the legal community by participating in mock interviews with attorneys. This program prepares students for entry to mid-level positions in the legal field.

Course #	Date	Days	Time	Hours	Cost
37326 SPA-PD	Fall 2018	TTh	5:30-8:30pm	96	$2495

Note: This is a hybrid course. The class will meet in person for 48 hours on the dates and times listed above. The other 48 hours of the course will be taken through an online course management system. In addition, to keep progress of these hours, students will learn how to use a billable hour program, Tabs 3.

The Paralegal Certificate Program requires a minimum of a bachelor's degree to be accepted. For admission, please submit a transcript (unofficial is allowed) to: Paralegal Program Supervisor, UNM Continuing Education, MSC07 4030, 1 University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM 87131. For questions, please contact careertraining@unm.edu.

A free subscription to LexisNexis® is included in the tuition and is available to the students throughout the course. As a subscriber to LexisNexis®, students qualify to complete the LexisNexis® Paralegal Student Certification of Mastery training program, designed specifically to help students increase proficiency in online legal research using lexis.com.

As a post-baccalaureate certificate program, graduates of our program are eligible for membership into the State Bar of New Mexico Paralegal Division. For more information, visit their website at: www.nmbar.org/nmstatebar/about_us/paralegal_division/paralegal_division.aspx

Learn the skills essential to perform substantive legal work that requires knowledge of legal concepts under the supervision of a licensed attorney. Paralegals tend to have diverse backgrounds and work experience. Paralegals are employed in private law firms, courts, government agencies, corporations, and in many other areas where law-related work is performed.

Paralegal Internship

The Paralegal Internship is part of the UNM Continuing Education Experiential Learning Program which gives students the opportunity to practice the skills learned in the classroom and apply them to real-life work-place situations. Paralegal interns are placed in various fields of the law, including government agencies such as Offices of the District Attorney and the New Mexico Public Defender Department, large and small law firms, and other areas. The students work under the direct supervision of a site supervisor which is typically an attorney or senior paralegal. In addition, the UNMCE internship supervisor will offer additional support to the student and monitor his or her progress in the program.

The Paralegal internships are only open to graduates of the UNMCE Paralegal Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program. Acceptance requires successful completion of the program and instructor recommendation.
